COMMUNITY EDITION

Context. Clarity. Perspective.

A ONE-PAGE SUMMARY FOR RESIDENT COUNCILS

More programs on your calendar, and stories your residents will share at dinner.

Every morning, residents get stories they won't find on the evening news. Those stories carry into Coffee and a Topic, Coffee and a Country, Coffee and a Story and the monthly Special Report, so people have something new to share every day.

EVERYTHING ON THE WEEKLY CALENDAR IS INCLUDED

- The World Desk Daily. 30–50 internationally sourced stories every morning by 6:00 AM Eastern, starting with 3 To Know.
- 3 To Know video. The day's 3 To Know as a short captioned video for your screens, with its 3-minute audio file, free in every plan.
- Beyond the Headlines. Four stories on four large-type pages each week, printed on campus.
- Coffee and a Topic (Tuesdays). A welcoming 45-minute conversation (groups of 10–24). No advance reading needed.
- Coffee and a Story (Mondays). A classic short story every Monday, in large print, for a 45-minute discussion (groups of 10–24).
- Coffee and a Country (Wednesdays at noon). A 45-minute visit to a different country (groups of 10–24), through short readings, pictures and good questions.
- Passport Week. Once a month, a fuller theme week (food, film, crafts and a stamped passport) built around Wednesday's Coffee and a Country, with a matching Coffee and a Story and Coffee and a Topic: up to three ready-made discussions that week. Each community picks one per calendar month from a library that grows by a new Passport Week every week, and can ask for a special one. No extra World Desk fee; optional supplies ~$100–450 are the community's.
- Tabletop Discussion cards. Weekly discussion cards for the dining tables. Monthly Special Report. A Special Report each month; see a free one at theworlddesk.news/community/special-reports.

WHAT IT COSTS, AND WHO DOES WHAT

Residents pay nothing. The community subscribes, priced by its size. For communities over 75 homes, the cost is under $1 per unit a month.

Minimal staff time: about 15 minutes to prepare and host each scheduled calendar event.

Your residents can host. We supply everything they need.

TRUSTED, AND DEPENDABLE

Every story is researched from named newspapers around the world, often in their own languages. Every story passes an independent fact-check or our editor's approval before it runs. Our editor, William Kohn, sets the rules and is accountable for every edition. See something wrong? Email comments@theworlddesk.news.

Start with a free staff trial month. No program fee, and nothing converts to paid unless the community agrees in writing. After that, month to month. Cancel anytime with 30 days' notice.
